

PROJECT MANAGEMENT LEADERSHIP SKILLS

DURATION

2 Days/Lecture

SUMMARY

This course presents the principles of project leadership especially using interpersonal skills. Attendees practice different roles in heavily intensive workshops with the individual guidance of the instructor. Great emphasis is placed on Definition of project leadership, Leadership vs. managing, Leadership styles, Leadership and the project management process, and Influencing and motivation.

AUDIENCE

This course is intended for newly appointed project managers or for project managers who want to formalize their knowledge of project leadership and motivation skills.

TOPICS

- General management skills/organizational planning
- Leadership vs. managing
- Leadership styles
- Applying leadership skills
- Communications
- Motivation
- Leading successful project meetings

PREREQUISITES

Students should have basic knowledge of project management principles and techniques.